Hymn: In Dominica Resurrectionis

It is the Resurrection Day; let us be radiant with joy, O ye people! It is the Pasch of the Lord, the Passover: for Christ our God has led us, singing our song of triumph, from death to life and from earth to heaven.

Let us purify our senses, and we shall see Christ refulgent in the inaccessible light of His Resurrection. We, singing our song of triumph, shall hear Him saying to us: "All hail!"

Let the heavens worthily rejoice, and let earth be in her glory. Let the whole world, visible and invisible, solemnize the Feast; for Christ, the eternal Joy, hath risen.

Come, let us receive the new drink, which strengthens us; it has not been miraculously drawn from a barren rock, but is a fount of immortality, flowing from the Sepulchre of Christ.

All things, heaven, earth, and what is beneath the earth, all are now tilled with light; let every creature, therefore, solemnize Christ's Resurrection, whereby all are strengthened.

Yesterday, O Jesus! I was buried together with Thee; today, I rise with Thee. Yesterday, I was crucified with Thee; do thou, my Saviour, give me to share with Thee in the glory of Thy kingdom.

David, the ancestor of Christ our God, danced before the figurative Ark: but we, the holy people of God, we who witness the fulfilment of the figures, must rejoice in the divine spirit that is within us, for Christ has risen, as the Omnipotent One.

Let us go at dawn of day, and offer to our Lord the myrrh of our hymns: we shall see Him rise Who is the Sun of Justice, and gives life to all creatures.

They, whom the fetters of Limbo kept bound, saw Thy infinite mercy, O Jesus! and, with a joyful step, hastened to meet the Light, thus celebrating the eternal Pasch.

Let us, with lamps in our hands, go forth to meet Christ, coming forth, as a Bridegroom, from His Sepulchre. Let us, in festive groups, celebrate together the saving Pasch of God.
